TDCJ employees receive volunteer service awards

Agency Chaplain Clint Morris and Connally Unit Warden Joe Grimes were honored for their work at the 2014 Governor's Criminal Justice Volunteer Service Awards Ceremony in Austin. The 19th annual awards ceremony honored 15 individuals and six organizations for their help rehabilitating offenders. A complete list of award recipients can be found on the TDCJ website.

Chaplain Morris, who works with the Jewish and Native American programs, was presented with the TDCJ Employee Volunteer Award for his work with the Toastmasters program at the Wynne Unit.

Warden Grimes received the Criminal Justice Administrator Award for his work with medium custody offenders in the Kairos program. ●
