

An employee publication of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice

May/June 2016
Volume 23 Issue 5

Agency News

Thielke named Parole Division director

Pamela Thielke has been selected to become director of TDCJ's Parole Division, effective July 15.

Thielke began her criminal justice career in the Parole Division in 1989 as a caseworker and, subsequently, a parole officer in Houston. She has worked as parole unit supervisor, program specialist and resource operations manager, parole supervisor, assistant region director and section director of Specialized Programs. She most recently held the position of deputy director of the Parole Division.

Pamela Thielke

Thielke has a Bachelor of Arts degree in Criminal Justice from St. Cloud State University in Minnesota. She also serves on the board of directors for the Texas Corrections Association and is an active member of American Probation and Parole Association.

TDCJ Executive Director Brad Livingston congratulated Thielke on her promotion saying, "Pam brings strong operational experience and proven leadership to her new position as Parole Division Director. Please welcome her as she assumes this new role." ●