DISCUSSION: Section 508.153 of the Government Code provides that before a parole panel considers parole or mandatory supervision release for an offender who is serving a sentence for an offense in which a person was a victim, the parole panel shall allow one person to appear in person before a Board Member or Parole Commissioner to present a statement of the person's views about the offense, the offender, and the effect of the offense on the victim.

This directive does not limit the voters' discretion to allow additional victims to make a personal appearance or to make contact by phone when a phone call is requested in lieu of a personal appearance. However, if the victim requests a personal appearance, the voting member shall allow such an appearance.
