Nothing in these guidelines and procedures limits the executive director’s authority to establish or revise human resources policy. These guidelines and procedures are adopted to guide the internal operations of the TDCJ and do not create any legally enforceable interest or limit the executive director’s, deputy executive director’s, or division directors’ authority to terminate an employee at will.

All employees of the TDCJ shall comply with state legislative mandates and TDCJ policy regarding political aid and legislative influence. In addition, TDCJ employees shall comply with the procedures within this directive relating to participation in employee organizations.

PROCEDURES:

I. Employee Political Activity

A TDCJ employee is encouraged to exercise the employee’s rights and responsibilities as a citizen in the political process through various activities. These activities may include voting, participating as a voter registrar, contributing personal money to the employee’s preferred candidates or political parties, and actively engaging in campaigning or fundraising and endorsements. However, employee political activities shall comply with the provisions within this directive.

A. Notice of Prohibitions

A state agency employee is required to comply with Texas Government Code §§ 556.004, 556.005, 556.006, 556.007, 556.008, and 556.009. These sections include several prohibitions relating to legislative influence by state agency employees. The PERS 19, Notice of Prohibitions (Attachment A), includes these sections of the Texas Government Code.

A copy of the PERS 19 shall be provided to each newly hired employee in the Direct Hire Packet the employee receives during the Direct Hire Session in accordance with PD-97, “Training and Staff Development.” An employee shall sign a receipt indicating the employee received a copy of the PERS 19. The TDCJ shall maintain the signed receipts in a manner accessible for public inspection.

B. Political Campaign Materials

TDCJ premises are nonpublic forums, except as otherwise noted in this directive. Therefore, while an employee, both on- and off-duty, is on TDCJ premises, the employee is prohibited from distributing, displaying, or wearing any form of political campaign materials, for example, buttons, handbills, or posters. Political campaign bumper stickers affixed on an employee’s personal vehicle are permitted.
C. Use of the TDCJ Internal Mail System

An employee is prohibited from knowingly using or authorizing use of the TDCJ’s internal mail system for the distribution of political advertising. This prohibition does not apply to the distribution of political advertising that is:

2. The subject of or related to an investigation, hearing, or other official proceeding of the TDCJ.

An employee who violates this prohibition commits a Class A misdemeanor offense and shall be reported to the Office of the Inspector General (OIG). Employees shall report occurrences or allegations of criminal offenses in accordance with AD-16.20, “Reporting Incidents/Crimes to the Office of the Inspector General,” immediately upon becoming aware of such conduct or as soon as practical. Reports may be made directly to the OIG or through the employee’s supervisor. Supervisory staff shall ensure that incidents reported to them are also reported to the OIG. All employees shall report conduct or activity the employee believes to be a violation in accordance with ED-02.01, “Texas Department of Criminal Justice Ethics Policy.”

II. Participation in Employee Organizations

A. Employee’s Right to Participate

The TDCJ will not require, encourage, discourage, or prohibit participation in employee organizations. This activity shall be limited to a maximum number of two employees per location.

3. Clubhouses

   Employee organizations shall be allowed to use clubhouses to the same extent and in the same circumstances that non-employee organizations are allowed to use clubhouses.

4. Employee Bulletin Boards
