

TEMPORARY CO PRE-EMPLOYMENT TEST EXEMPTION

The Texas Department of Criminal Justice has expanded the correctional officer pre-employment test exemption to allow applicants the option to interview virtually or via phone.

Applications will not be processed without the required documents. Correctional officer applicants must complete the State of Texas Application for Employment, TDCJ Employment Application Supplement, and the Statement of Availability, PERS-282b.

Test exemption applies to:

- Military Veterans
- College graduates from Texas colleges or universities accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges
- All other applicants will be exempt from the pre-employment test only if their application packet is complete.
 - All forms must be 100% complete – no question unanswered including photo identification card, proof of education, etc.
 - See complete list of required documents
