DISCUSSION: The Texas Board of Pardons and Paroles (Board) may receive Expunction Orders from the court, the Texas Department of Criminal Justice, attorneys, clemency applicants, or offenders. Upon receipt of the Expunction Order (Order), the Board is required to redact any and all responsive information in the records prepared or maintained by the Board or change all identifying information in the records as directed by the Order. When a final Order is received and processed, the Board is prohibited from releasing, maintaining, disseminating, or using the expunged records and files for any purpose.

DEFINITIONS: Expunction Order – an order entered by a state district court requiring all entities that maintain criminal history information to redact arrest or misuse of identity information from all records.

Original Panel – the panel that voted to release an offender on parole or mandatory supervision or revoke the offender’s release status.

PROCEDURE:

I. The General Counsel’s Office (GCO) receives and processes all Orders in accordance with this directive and operational procedures. The GCO staff shall review all parole review, parole revocation, and clemency records, paper and electronic, prepared or maintained by Board staff wherever the records may be located.

   A. Criminal Arrest Records – When the GCO staff locates information in the records which is responsive to the Expunction Order, the GCO staff or designated Board staff shall redact the information as directed by the Expunction Order.
B. Misuse of Identity – When the GCO staff locates information in the records which is responsive to the Order, the GCO staff or designated Board staff shall delete all identifying information in the record and replace it with all identifying information as directed by the Order.

II. When the redaction of criminal history information occurs after a parole panel’s vote to release or deny release of an offender on parole or mandatory supervision or after a revocation decision, the GCO staff will notify the Board Administrator who may refer the case back to the original panel for review.

III. After the appropriate records are redacted or all identifying information is corrected, the district clerk shall be notified in writing. The GCO staff shall send a letter along with all court documents to the district clerk.
